 Today's Focus...Prophets and Judges

Though few of us think of ourselves as prophets or judges in the biblical sense, the life of the disciple is one that sometimes calls on us to speak out, and to evaluate what is happening in the world around us.

Flowers

Person interested in donating flowers for the altar can contact the parish office. Flowers can be donated for birthdays, anniversaries or in memory of a loved one.

A WARM AND LOVING WELCOME TO ALL OUR VISITORS

*“You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right;
Treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.”
(Cf. Psalm 119/118:137, 124)*

Let us Pray

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease, realize that they are chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen. RCIA-Rite of Christian Initiation-A Journey of Faith

The Rite of Christian Initiation is a process developed by our Church in which adults are welcomed to come and share, and to learn about our faith and its practices. It is also opened to persons who are baptized Catholics but who have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

We also invite parishioners to come and see and to support these individuals as sponsors by journeying with them on their "Journey of Faith."

If you are interested in becoming either a sponsor or a team member, please contact Mrs. Dori Bowleg—RCIA team coordinator or leave your name at the parish office.

RCIA sessions will begin on Wednesday, September 24th, 2014 at 7.00p.m. in the parish office.

Music Ministry

Any young person or persons young at heart, who want and are willing to commit in being a part of the youth/young adults choir group, practice resumes on this Wednesday September 10th, 2014 at 7:00 pm (Please contact Ms. Lesley Hutchinson)

Attention Lectors!

Reflecting on the Word

It is an almost unquestionable principle among many people today that it is bad to be judgmental. After all, doesn't Jesus say, "Judge not, lest you be judged"? But today's scriptures imply that holding people accountable for their actions is not only something that God commands us to do, but it is also one of the ways in which we show love to our neighbors. When we see someone doing something wrong, it is an act of kindness to turn him or her from that course of action.

Important here is the distinction between judging a person and judging an action. Only God can judge a person because only God can see into the heart and know the intention with which someone acts. But, as Paul reminds us in the second reading, God has also shown us the sort of actions that befit a truly loving person, the sort of actions that lead us toward God rather than away from God. While we cannot judge how a person stands in the eyes of God, we are called to make judgments all the time about our own actions and the actions of others. If we see people acting to a way that is unloving, we are obliged to point this out, for their own good as well as for the good of those around them.

We should ask ourselves whether our hesitation to judge another person's actions grows out of genuine humility and acceptance or out of a desire simply not to be perceived as a scold. Few of us relish the role of keeper of public morality. But when we see someone engaged in behavior that is harmful to themselves or others, it is our role to speak out honestly and with love.

Responding to the Word

Loving God, give us your Spirit of gentleness and wisdom, so that we may know what is truly good and make it known to others with fearlessness and love, through Christ our Lord.

~Living the Word~

Bible Class resumes on Monday, September 22nd at 7.00pm in the middle classroom.
